

The Hot Ruddered Bum Regatta

Sponsored by the University Yacht Club and the UYC Maritime Foundation

Origins and Purpose

The Hot Ruddered Bum Regatta is a beloved sailing tradition held annually on Lake Lanier, Georgia, organized and sponsored by the University Yacht Club (UYC) and the UYC Maritime Foundation. The event traces its roots back to 1975 when members of the University Yacht Club sought to create a fun and informal race to celebrate the spirit of sailing and camaraderie among local sailors.

Growth and Community Impact

What began as a small gathering of sailing enthusiasts quickly grew into a major regatta, attracting participants from across the region. The regatta is known for its light-hearted atmosphere, and inclusive participation, welcoming both experienced racers and novices alike. Over the years, the Hot Ruddered Bum Regatta has become a staple of Lake Lanier's sailing calendar, fostering community engagement and encouraging new generations to take to the water.

Sponsorship and Support

The continued success of the Hot Ruddered Bum Regatta is made possible through the support of its sponsors. The University Yacht Club provides organizational leadership, facilities, and volunteer resources, while the UYC Maritime Foundation offers financial backing and promotes maritime education and safety. Together, these organizations ensure that the regatta remains a fun, safe, and memorable event for all involved.

Legacy

The Hot Ruddered Bum Regatta stands as a testament to the enduring passion for sailing and community fellowship on Lake Lanier. With each passing year, the event grows in popularity, reinforcing the bonds between club members, local residents, and the broader sailing community. The regatta continues to inspire joy, sportsmanship, and a love of the lake that endures throughout generations.
